

Joint MSW/MBA

Note: This fact sheet does not include the program specific curriculum. To access the curriculum from the program's webpage, click one of the links below the section titled "Degrees Offered."

The Joint MSW/MBA program allows students to earn both the Master of Social Work and Master of Business Administration degrees. Twelve credit hours of the MSW curriculum count as a social work track for the MBA. The program is open only to students enrolled in either the MSW or MBA programs at NU. Applicants must satisfy the admission requirements of each program separately. Students enrolled in one of the programs must be admitted to the other program prior to completing the first degree.

EXPERT, ACCESSIBLE FACULTY

The Joint MSW/MBA program consists of a group of carefully selected scholarly and professional practitioners who creatively introduce students to emerging theory and current best practices.

Newman Graduates regularly cite close collaboration with talented, dedicated faculty as one of their most meaningful experiences at Newman.

Newman faculty members are more than just leaders in their field. They take an active and personal role in students' studies and progress, forming strong relationships with students through coursework, special projects and informal out of class discussions.

ACCREDITATION

Newman University is accredited by The Higher Learning Commission of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools, www.ncahigherlearningcommission.org.

FINANCIAL AID

With many scholarships, grants, work-study and company tuition assistance programs available, the cost of a degree from Newman University is comparable to that of state universities.
