

International Studies

Note: This fact sheet does not include the program specific curriculum. To access the curriculum from the program's webpage, click one of the links below the section titled "Degrees Offered."

The International Studies Program helps students gain tools to explore the world for meaning and understanding. The speed and efficiency of communication and travel have made the world a small and complex place. Successful leaders approach this complexity with an eagerness supported by an awareness of the various peoples, ideas and issues facing our country and the world.

DEGREES OFFERED

- Minor in International Studies

PROGRAM INFORMATION

This minor pulls from a variety of disciplines on campus, including literature, business, economics, Spanish, sociology, art, and more.

The faculty at Newman University strive to foster a learning environment that encourages the exchange of well-supported ideas. Through lecture, Socratic inquiry, travel, service and language acquisition, the student who successfully completes the International Studies minor gains extraordinary tools with which to investigate our world.

EXPERT, ACCESSIBLE FACULTY

The International Studies program consists of a group of carefully selected scholarly and professional practitioners who creatively introduce students to emerging theory and current best practices.

Newman Graduates regularly cite close collaboration with talented, dedicated faculty as one of their most meaningful experiences at Newman.

Newman faculty members are more than just leaders in their field. They take an active and personal role in students' studies and progress, forming strong relationships with students through coursework, special projects and informal out of class discussions.

ACCREDITATION

Newman University is accredited by The Higher Learning Commission of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools, www.ncahigherlearningcommission.org.

FINANCIAL AID

With many scholarships, grants, work-study and company tuition assistance programs available, the cost of a degree from Newman University is comparable to that of state universities.
